

How I Love Your Ways, O Lord!

for unison choir (or cantor), congregation and keyboard

Psalms 119: 137-144 (paraphrase D.P.)

THE LARK IN THE CLEAR AIR
Irish traditional, arr. by David E. Poole

Voices

1

3/4

solo or section:

Full of right-eous-ness are you, O zeal, O Lord, has worn me and des-pis-ed though I and dis-tress have come to keyboard

1

3/4

5

Lord. out; am, me;

All your ways
My en-e-mies
I will re-mem-ber
But your com-mands

and laws are per-fect.
ig-nore your words.
ber all your pre-cepts.
are my de-light.

Right-ous your Ev-er-Your

8

are the sta-tutes you lay down, prom-i-ses have pro-ven true,
last-ing is your right-eous-ness,
sta-tutes are for-ev-er right.

speak-ing truth and wor-thy of and so I hold them close in my
And in your law a-bides all O-pen my eyes that I might

8

8

11 optional descant (3rd and 4th refrains):

11 Choir and Cong: How I love your ways O Lord! You have set your laws with - in - my trust. heart. truth. live.

How I love your ways O Lord! You have set your law with - in - my

15 heart; And your right - eous - ness shall nev - er fail, giv - ing me strength and hope all my heart; And your right - eous - ness shall nev - er fail, giv - ing me strength and hope all my 19 days.

days.

19 My Low - ly Trou - ble

(fine)